Hotel Sassongher

Hotel in Corvara Alta Badia - Hotel Sassongher

At the Hotel Sassongher, lying at the feet of the imposing Sassongher, you will be warmly welcomed by the Pescosta Family, by the director, Mr. Thomas Steiner and the whole team. In summer as well as in winter it is our highest priority to make your stay unforgettable.

Welcome to the Hotel Sassongher!

The enchanting beauty of the alpine scenery which will take you right to the doorstep of the hotel will also fascinate you as soon as you walk in. Delicate flower compositions, beautiful corners decorated in typical South Tyrolean style, local art and the meticulous attention to stylish details will make you feel just like at home. Here you can unwind, forget everyday's life and gain new energy.

After dinner, join us at the bar, to taste an excellent glass of wine or a refreshing cocktail, and enjoy some peaceful moments in good company.
